

I had to laugh, although I was shocked.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow.)

The club women in Idaho are agitating a pure fabric law similar to the pure food law.

HERE IS A BRAND NEW PICTURE OF MARY FULLER, EDISON MOVIE GIRL OF MUCH FAME

Mary Fuller

Mary Fuller is probably the pioneer in the serial "movie" picture. Anyway, her remarkable success in "What Happened to Mary" seems to have started the ball rolling. And now many film companies are putting out weekly or twice-a-month pictures in which there is a continued story represented.

Mary's latest serial story is "Dolly of the Dailies," released the second and fourth Saturdays of the month. It is written for her by Acton Davies.

SIMPLE REASON

Belle—I feel a quiver whenever I look at that handsome young man.
Nell—That's because he is a beau.
